British To Hand-Over Power Before Aug. 15

MAHATMA'S ADDRESS TO PRAYER MEETING

Big Team Of Experts Busy On Parliamentary Legislation In London

NEW DELHI, June 6. (A.P.I.): Addressing the prayer meeting after a two and half hour meeting with the Viceroy this afternoon, Mahatma Gandhi said that the Viceroy had told him that the British were preparing to hand over authority by August 15.

Stating that his interview with the Viceroy was very cordial, Mahatma Gandhi said: "I told him he was not to blame for whatever that has happened. He did what the Muslim League and the Congress had jointly asked him to do".

NOT RESPONSIBLE FOR THE EVIL

Following is the authorised version of Mahatma Gandhi's post-prayer speech:—

Mahatma Gandhi in his post-prayer speech this evening said that a sister had written to him that he should retire to the jungle. It was he who had spoilt Jinnah Saheb and turned his head. He (Gandhiji) was responsible for the evil that the country was facing. The sister who said so was quite wrong. Love or 'Ahimsa' was the most powerful magnet in the world. It never did harm to any one.

MOUNTBATTEN'S DEADLINE

They might ask him what he had brought from the Viceroy. He had brought nothing for he had nothing to give except his services, if they were wanted. He had told him that his one object was to withdraw from India in the quickest manner possible, leaving behind peace and order throughout India. They had decided to go in June 1948. Now they would probably withdraw by August 15th year. Why had they decided to go? They were impressed by our non-violent struggle. India believed British rule was an evil. Yet she did not try to kill the British. She simply tried to non-co-operate with the evil—not the evil doer. Such interval as was necessary was due to the fact that it was a voluntary withdrawal. Some arrangement was a necessity of the case.

BRITISH NOT TO BLAME

There were several who still suspected their 'bona fides.' It was not they who were dividing India. Unity of rule they claimed as their greatest achievement. The division was the result of an agreement however reluctant between the Congress and the League.

Brave people were not perturbed by mere suspicions. He himself believed the Viceroy was sincere. If he was proved to be a dupe, he would be the sufferer, never the duped.

"DANGEROUS METHOD"

Now that Qaid-e-Azam has got what he had wanted, it was upto him to give the world the shape of Pakistan and make it attractive in word and action. Was it not upto him to invite all non-Muslims and show them that they would be as happy as Muslims of Pakistan? What about the Frontier Province? It was a Congress Province. If it was to be of Pakistan, the Qaid-e-Azam had to convince the Pathans that they would be just as well off in Pakistan as in the Union of the Provinces of India. Referendum was a dangerous method at this time. He, therefore, suggested the method of attracting the Pathans through reason and love.

Gandhiji For Kashmir

NEW DELHI, June 6 (UPI): Mr. Ghulam Mohammed Bakshi, Acting President of the Kashmir National Conference, met Gandhiji yesterday afternoon and discussed the present position of the Kashmir States' people's movement.

Interview by the United Press of India, Mr. Ghulam Mohammed said that Gandhiji was very likely to go to Kashmir, possibly towards the end of this month. No date, however, has yet been fixed.

Continuing he said that ever since the imprisonment of their leader, Mr. Sheikh Mohammed Abdulla the Kashmir States' People's organisation had to fight against odds. He added that they wanted Pandit Nehru to go to Kashmir once again but great political developments at. Delhi at the present moment had made it difficult for him to comply with this request. They brought this fact to Gandhiji's notice and he expressed his desire to go to Kashmir provided more pressing work here did not stand in his way.

CALLERS ON GANDHIJI

Prominent among callers at Gandhi Camp yesterday were Sir Mirza Ismail, Mr. Ghulam Mohammed Bakshi, Acting President of the Kashmir National Conference, Pandit Govind Malaviya, Dr. Khan Saheb, Frontier Premier, and Socialist leaders including Acharya Narendra Dev, Dr. Lohia, Srimathi Kamaladevi Chattopadhyaya and Mrs. Aruna Asaf Ali.

Mahatma Meets Viceroy

NEW DELHI, June 6. (A. P. I.): Mahatma Gandhi had an interview with the Viceroy this evening.

The interview lasted nearly two and half hours. Prior to his departure to the Viceroy's House, Mahatma Gandhi held consultations with the Congress High Command.

MOUNTBATTEN GIVES FOUR WEEKS' TIME

NEW DELHI, June 6 (UPI): Feverish activity is noticeable in the Reforms Section of the Central Government Secretaries in order to prepare 'briefs' for dealing with the various problems which would arise as a corollary to the division of India into Hindustan and Pakistan zones.

It is understood that Lord Mountbatten has made it clear to all concerned in the Government of India Secretariat that four weeks' time at the outside ought to be sufficient for getting ready with all preliminaries necessary for the implementing of the eventual decision to divide India.

Similarly the Provincial Governors are understood to have been instructed to secure by the end of the month at the latest the verdict of the respective provincial legislatures as to whether the Constitution of that province is to be drawn up by the existing Constituent Assembly or by a separate Constituent Assembly envisaged in His Majesty's Government's Plan of June 3.

PUNJAB'S POSITION

On this point, really speaking, what is considered more important is the verdict of the Legislatures in Bengal, Punjab and Sind, the verdict of other provinces being a foregone conclusion. While the verdict of Bengal and Sind on this fundamental question does not seem to be in doubt political observers here opine that they would not be surprised if Punjab with its party alignments as they exist to-day recorded an opinion in favour of a proposition that Punjab's constitution should be drawn up by the existing Constituent Assembly.

The referendum in the North-West Frontier Province is not likely to be completed by the deadline fixed by the Viceroy and unless the verdict of the North-West Frontier Province and Sylhet in Assam is ascertained one way or the other, the new Constituent Assembly proposed to be set up for the Pakistan areas would not start functioning.

It is further learnt on enquiry in the same circles that in view of the disturbed conditions in Punjab, the original idea of holding the Pakistan Constituent Assembly's session in Lahore, which was declared by Mr. Jinnah as the corner-stone of Pakistan, is being abandoned in favour of New Delhi.

EGYPTIAN TRADE ENVOYS CALL ON JINNAH

Punjab Governor Discusses Partition Plan

(From Our Correspondent)

LAHORE, June 6

The Governor of the Punjab told Lala Bhimsen Sachar, the Khan of Mamdot and Sardar Sawarnsingh who called on him to-day that he had only 71 days at his disposal and he could hand over charge of the province to two Ministries which will be functioning after the partitioning of the Punjab.

I learn on good authority that the Governor held to-day the first conference of various departmental Secretaries and explained to them how the division of the province should be affected. He is understood to have advised the Services to remain above party politics while working out the figures connected with the partition.

CONGRESS WORKING COMMITTEE IN SESSION

NEW DELHI, June 6 (A.P.I.): Those members of the Congress Working Committee who are now in Delhi met at the Bhangi Colony this morning for about three hours. They are again meeting at 5 P.M. this afternoon.

Dr. Rajendra Prasad saw Mahatma Gandhi this morning separately.

Monsoon In Sight

BOMBAY, June 6. (A.P.I.): According to latest reports of the Meteorological Office, Santa Cruz, the Arabian Sea monsoon current is still feeble. It has advanced in Karwar District and the present indications are that it will continue further slowly northwards along the Konkan Coast. As the current is still weak, it is not likely to give heavy rains when it comes over Bombay. But this should not, however give the impression that the monsoon will not strengthen later and give usual heavy rains and rough seas.

Development Of Bhatkal Port

BOMBAY'S FOOD POSITION DETERIORATES

Govt. May Reduce Wheat Off-Take By 6,000 Tons: Rice Deficit Totals 37,000 Tons

The Director of Publicity, Government of Bombay, writes: The Government of Bombay finds it necessary to bring to the notice of the public the deterioration in the supply position of both wheat and rice in the province of Bombay.

Wheat Position

As is generally known, the wheat position has been difficult for some months past and it was found necessary from March 1, 1947, to order that offtakes should be stabilised in all parts of the Province at approximately half the rates prevailing up to that date. The necessity for this step arose largely because the wheat crop in the greater part of the Province had failed and overseas supplies were by no means generous.

EXISTING STOCK

"The Government of India have now made it clear that the supplies of wheat during the months of June, July and August are likely to be very limited indeed. The existing stock in the Province is only about 30,000 tons and of this 18,000 tons have had to be reserved to provide seed for the areas where the crop failed last season. The supplies expected from the Government of India during these three months amount to not more than 30,000 tons. The prospects of further procurement within the Province are also very limited owing to the bad season. The total supplies available, therefore, for the period June to August amount only to 42,000 tons. From these supplies it is necessary also to provide for a carry over of at least one month's requirements, although it would be safer to have six weeks' supplies.

From these figures it will be clear that good economy requires the reduction of wheat offtake in the Province from the existing stabilised figure of approximately 17,000 tons to about 11,000 tons. However before this drastic reduction is brought into effect, a final effort is being made to induce the Government of India to advance supplies from some source: this might be possible by borrowing from the wheat producing Provinces like the Punjao, Sind or United Provinces against a promise of return out of the wheat import quota for the second half of the year which will be arriving in this country from September.

UNSATISFACTORY RICE POSITION

The position as regards rice though not quite so serious as that of wheat has recently given cause for disquiet. The total offtake of rice during 1945-46 in this Province was 364,700 tons. For 1946-47, the Basic plan allotment from the Government of India was 1,72,000 tons. The procurement expected is 160,000 tons, out of which 158,000 tons have already been secured. Against the Basic Plan allotment, 85,600 tons have already been received from the Government of India upto May 25. The total stocks on that date in the Province was about 75,000 tons. Expected further procurement is 2,000 tons; the allotment from the Government of India for June is 16,000 tons; the probable allotments for July and August may be put at 20,000 tons altogether. Thus, the supplies available from June 1 to August 31 are 113,000 tons.

The offtake of rice in April was 35,000 tons. In order to maintain this offtake and have a reasonable carryover at the end of August, total stocks of about 150,000 tons would be necessary. There is, therefore, a deficit of 37,000 tons.

As in the case of wheat, a final effort is being made at the highest level to induce the Government of India to make up the deficit in the Province's stocks, so as to avoid any interference with the existing rice ration. Should this effort not succeed, then the offtake of rice in all areas will have to be proportionately reduced as was done in the case of wheat last February.

STERLING BALANCES TALKS POSTPONED

NEW DELHI, June 6. (A.P.I.): Negotiations regarding Sterling Balances between India and Britain which were to have taken place towards the end of this month have now been postponed, it is reliably learnt. This decision is understood to have been taken in view of the latest constitutional proposals put forward by H.M.G. and the consequent pre-occupation of Indian leaders. It is considered likely that the talks will be held only after the constitutional position has crystallised.

EGYPT'S STERLING BALANCE QUESTION TO BE SETTLED SOON

LONDON, June 5, (Reuter): The first thing that will have to be agreed in the talks on Egypt's sterling balances which start in London tomorrow, is the size of the balance under discussion. Certain items which Egyptians regard as coming within Egypt's sterling balances are not so regarded by British officials. This is the main reason why the total which previously was authoritatively stated by King Farouk of Egypt and others to be £440,000,000 is now given in London as rather less than £400,000,000.

The British do not deny that other assets exist and belong to Egypt. The question is only whether they rank as "balances". If there is any question of proportionate scaling down of balances it is clearly in Egypt's interest that their ambit should be made as narrow as possible and the reverse for Britain.

IRAQ DELEGATION FOR LONDON TO DISCUSS STERLING BALANCES

BAGHDAD, June 5 (Reuter): A three-member Financial Delegation, possibly led by a Cabinet Minister, will leave for London in the next 10 days to discuss Iraq's sterling balances.

It was learned from authentic sources that the Delegation will demand payment from Britain of every penny of Iraq sterling balances.

U.S. To Protest Against Hungarian 'Outrage'

NOTE PREPARED BUT NOT YET HANDED OVER

Budapest Minister To Paris Refuses To Recognise New Regime

WASHINGTON, June 6. (Reuter): The United States State Department has drafted a sharp note of protest to the Soviet Commander in Hungary which describes the recent Soviet action there as a serious intervention in the country's internal affairs, it is officially stated.

The note also proposed a three-Power investigation of the situation and hinted at United States' action, if a satisfactory reply was not received.

TRUMAN APPROVES

The note has not yet been handed to the Hungarian Government and further information from Hungary is hoped for before it is sent.

In its tentative form, the note is understood to have the full approval of President Truman who yesterday described the present regime in Hungary as "an outrage".

The note is understood to show that the State Department has already concluded that the Soviet Commander in Hungary is directly implicated in the events leading to Premier Ferenc Nagy's resignation last week and is therefore, guilty of direct intervention in the internal affairs of Hungary.

VIOLATION OF YALTA AGREEMENT

The note is expected to charge Soviet officials with violating the Yalta Agreement in which the Big Three Powers jointly declared "their mutual agreement to concert, during the temporary period of instability in liberated Europe, policies of their three Governments in assisting the peoples to solve by democratic means their pressing political and economic problems".

The note is further understood to suggest the creation of a Big Three fact-finding body composed of British, United States and Soviet representatives to look into the entire political situation in Hungary.

SECRET DOCUMENTS DISCOVERED

BUDAPEST, June 6. (Reuter): The Hungarian Parliamentary Purge Commission has discovered secret documents at the office of M. Bela Varga, former Speaker of the National Assembly which seriously compromises several Hungarian politicians and Ministers abroad, it was reported today by the Hungarian News Agency.

RUSSIAN REPLY

LONDON, June 6. (A.P.A.): Russia has informed Britain that all the evidence and information which led to the resignation of ex-premier Ferenc Nagy has been handed over to the Hungarian Government, a Foreign Office spokesman said today.

The Russian statement came after Britain's political representative in Budapest, Mr. A. K. Helm asked Lt. Gen. V. P. Sviridov, the Russian occupation chief, for copies of all documents on which the charges against Nagy were based.

The spokesman commented, "We hope the documents will not remain permanently in the hands of the Hungarian Government."

RUSSIA FORCED NAGY'S RESIGNATION

WASHINGTON, June 6. (A.P.A.): The Hungarian Minister, who refused to recognize the new Budapest regime, told the Press that Hungary's only hope to escape Russian domination lies with the United Nations. He said, "If there is to be a United Nations then it must find a solution for our problem".

The Minister said Nagy's resignation was finally forced upon him when his four-year-old son was held as a hostage by the Russians pending compliance with Soviet orders.

CHARLES EATON DEMANDS ACTION

WASHINGTON, June 6. (U. P. A.): Chairman Charles Eaton of the House Foreign Affairs Committee urged the Government to do more than shout in dealing with the Soviet "rape" of Hungary.

BULGARIAN OPPOSITION LEADER ARRESTED

SOFIA, June 6. (Reuter): M. Nikola Petkov, Bulgarian opposition and peasant party leader, has been arrested and charged with making an attempt to seize power by force of arms, it was reported today.

His party gained 90 of the 99 opposition seats in the general elections of last October and he was arrested after the National Assembly had voted to deprive him of his Parliamentary immunity.

The public prosecutor alleged in a letter to the Assembly, that the activities of Petkov and certain members of his party had led to "The Organisation of Fascist military bodies with a view to attempt to seize power.

The Assembly vote was taken after Petkov had defended himself.

(Britain and United States protested against the conduct of elections last year when communist led "Fatherland front" gained a sweeping victory).

TWO DOMINIONS IN 7 WEEKS

LONDON, June 6 (Reuter): There will be two self-governing Dominions of India in seven weeks' time if Britain's present plans keep to schedule according to authoritative London quarters to-night, cables Fraser Wighton, Reuter's Political Correspondent.

The provisional programme is understood to be as follows:—

First: Parliament to be presented with the necessary legislation not later than the first week of July.

Second: The Legislation conferring Dominion Status on the two Indias to be rushed through both the House of Commons and Lords within a week. As Conservative opposition has indicated through its leader Mr. Winston Churchill that he does not intend to obstruct the Government's plans, no difficulty should be presented.

Third: The Legislation after approval by Parliament to be submitted immediately to the King for royal assent.

Fourth: The Legislation to be placed on the Statute Book before the end of July.

FATEFUL LEGISLATION

The British Parliament does not rise for its summer recess until approximately August 8, but it is evident that Government does not intend to leave completion of the Indian legislation until the last minute. Leading constitutional advisers of the Crown are already hard at work upon the preparation of the measure for Dominion Status.

According to reliable sources, the likelihood is that one measure will be sufficient for the purpose and for obvious reasons it will have to be a short measure.

By an irony of circumstances, it looks as though the most fateful legislation in India's modern history may pass through the British Parliament more unobtrusively than any previous act for the time factor rules out protracted debates such as those making the previous steps towards Indian self-determination.

BIG TEAM AT WORK

Additionally to the Constitutional experts, a large Government team is now involved in the Indian transitional arrangements.

It includes the Prime Minister—who is continuously in charge of the subject—the Secretary of State for India, Lord Listowel, the Secretary of State for the Dominions, Lord Addison, the Board of Trade President, Sir Stafford Cripps the Defence Minister, Mr. A. V. Alexander, the India Under-Secretary of State, Mr. Arthur Henderson and the Dominions Under-Secretary, Mr. Arthur Bottomley.

oh! but for tea...

how to make good tea

1. Don't brew your tea in the kettle. Use a teapot for brewing.
2. The teapot should be warm and dry when you put in the dry tea. This assures correct infusion and flavour.
3. Put one teaspoonful of fresh dry tea leaves for each cup and one extra for the pot.
4. Use only freshly boiled water—never water that has been previously boiled, under-boiled or over-boiled. Water is boiling when it is bubbling and not before.
5. The time for infusion is not less than five minutes.
6. Don't add sugar and milk while the tea is still in the pot, but only after it is poured out in cups.

It is no longer possible to have large, elaborate parties. Foodstuffs are scarce and there are so many restrictions. But the old, graceful little tea parties luckily remain unaffected; and hostesses can still give themselves the pleasure of entertaining their friends to a nice cup of tea. Good tea brings rest to the body and refreshment to the mind. It breeds friendship, enlivens talk and revives pleasant memories. No wonder Sydney Smith, the famous wit, said: "What would the world do without tea? I am glad I was not born before it."

The Government communique announcing this appeals for the co-operation of the teachers. The parents and the public in the large strides that have yet to be taken in improving the conditions of the teaching profession. Attempts have been made to procure minimum pay for trained teachers in elementary schools in aided managements. The pay of the Hindustani Pandits as well as of Physical Training Instructors has also been revised. The Government guarantee Local Board scales to teachers working in aided secondary schools.

Under the latest revision, Secondary Grade School Teachers are allowed a scale of Rs. 45-2-85 and L. T. Assistants Rs. 75-5-145 but without any craft allowance

With a view to enabling managements to find the funds for meeting the extra costs involved in introducing same scales of pay as those for teachers in secondary schools under Local Bodies, Government have decided to raise the basis of assessment of teaching grants from one-half to two-third of the approved net cost.

In view of the increased scales of grants now sanctioned, the Government have decided to insist on managements of schools allowing a minimum pay of Rs. 30 to a higher elementary grade trained teacher and Rs. 40 to Secondary Grade trained teacher.

THE DISCOVERY OF THE CHARKA

Spinning by the Takli is the oldest method of cotton spinning of which there is any record. It dates back to 3,000 B.C. and is still widely practised in India. Believe it or not—all the mechanised forms of spinning today follow the same principle—the spindle resting on some surface or foundation to control vibration.

The Charka, the earliest known spinning wheel, was first used in India 2,000 years ago. It was a remarkable labour-saving discovery of the times and multiplied, by over eight times, the productivity of the hand spinning it had superseded!

Founded in 1886, the Calico Mills form one of India's largest single units and, with the Jubilee Mills, produce over 1,75,000 yards of fabrics a day. To-day, more than ever before, its facilities are serving the Nation's efforts to fight the cloth shortage.

Imperialism's Parting Kick To India

President Of Sind Jamiat Criticises "Mounbatten Plan"

KARACHI, June 5, (U. P. I.): Sheik Abdul Majid, President of the Sind Muslim Jamiat, in a statement says:

"Imperialisms do not depart without parting kicks. Before our very eyes Palestine is threatened with dismemberment. Sudan must part with Egypt. Indonesia is being cut into pieces. Partitioning of India is an accomplished fact.

India divided along with its provinces and separated from the Indian States offers no contribution to the peace either in India or in the world. The Indian problem has been deliberately mishandled by parties concerned from the very outset. What was required constitutionally, politically and economically was to recognise sovereignty of the provinces and States with democratic constitutions and nationalisation of land and industry. An Indian Union or confederation will have then come into existence by voluntary sound basis within no time.

These fundamental rights still remain unrecognised. Therein lie the roots of the future trouble almost unending in both the parts of India. Two Indias will always remain as inter-dependent in many matters of internal and external character. Both must inevitably evolve a common Centre or machinery on the footing of equality for the solution of internal and international problems and disputes. Or else both will land themselves, Asia and the world into conflicts and conflagrations.

"We do not know what is going to be the fate of the minorities within Pakistan and Hindustan. Will reciprocal rights and statutory safeguards be provided for them? If so, where is the guarantee they will be implemented and honoured? An Indian international code almost appears necessary to adjudicate whenever there is any breach either in respect of the rights of minorities or agreements and treaties that might be entered into between Pakistan and Hindustan"

'FICTITIOUS INDEPENDENCE'

MOSCOW, June 5. (U.P.A.): Eugene Zhukov, member of the Academy of Sciences, said Britain was offering India the same sort of "fictitious independence" the United States gave the Philippines.

M. Zhukov, giving the first Soviet reaction to the new Indian plan in a lecture here, said Britain's promise "contains the germ of the idea that complete freedom can be indefinitely postponed. Britain is being forced to take a page from the American book and copy her policy in the Philippines—to give nominal false freedom. In other words, to clear out so as to remain. Such is the task of British imperialism. Only thus can yesterday's statement by Lord Mountbatten be interpreted."

A GREAT TRAGEDY, SAYS ISAAC FOOT.

BRADFORD (YORKSHIRE), June 6. (A.P.A.):Mr. Isaac Foot, Liberal Party President and the only Englishman alive to-day who has sat at both the Round Table Conferences on India and the Joint Committee on Burma, said yesterday that "partition though inevitable, is a great tragedy."

The issue, he declared, concerned the whole future relations between Europe and Asia.

Madras Ministers' Salaries Reduced

MADRAS, June 5 (A.P.I.): The Madras Cabinet, unanimously decided to reduce the present salaries of each Minister from Rs. 1,000 per month to Rs. 850 with effect from this month. As a result of this decision each Minister will receive in all Rs. 1350 a month which includes all allowances.

This reduction does not apply either to the Speaker of the assembly or the President of the Council who will continue to draw their salaries as before.

U. P. ASSEMBLY PASSES GAON HUKUMAT BILL

NAINITAL, June 6 (A.P.I.): The U. P. Legislative Assembly passed today the controversial Gaon Hukumat Bill 1946, as amended by the Select Committee by 100 votes to 35 the Muslim League and Zamindar Parties voting against the measure. Babu Purshottam Das Tandon, speaker was in the chair.

The Muslim League party having revised its earlier decision to stage a walk-out towards the conclusion of the third reading at yesterday's meeting was present in the house.

Everything Is Not Plain Sailing

"New Statesman And Nation" On New Plan

LONDON, June 6. (A.P.A.): The "New Statesman and Nation" said to-day the new Indian plan "in an indirect way may preserve the unity of the subcontinent and perhaps secure its co-operation with the Commonwealth."

Saying that the new plan seems to have a better chance of success than any of the previous plans, the paper pointed out "however, that does not mean that everything is again plain sailing."

Gandhi's statement on Wednesday, the paper continued, will be read with relief: He declared us hope that in the long run India would be reunited, appealed to Jinnah to seek for a fair solution with other parties and advised his followers not to rebel against the Congress decision.

"Jinnah is likely to accept what has been proferred him to the accompaniment of a sustained and public look in the gift horse's mouth, protesting vehemently that a truncated Pakistan will serve merely as a start for an intensive campaign to be launched when the British have gone," the paper said.

"The British have done well to insist on speed in carrying out the proposals. The situation is getting far beyond our ability to control, and by June 1948, if still in a position of authority in India we would have become too involved to get out without harm to ourselves and more harm to India."

"SPECTATOR'S" COMMENTS.

The "Spectator" commented that "the Indian problem is not yet solved ..... Next Monday's meeting of the Moslem League will be critical. That Jinnah should have accepted the proposals laid before the Indian leaders by Mountbatten means much, but if, for example, his party should on Monday reassert its demand for a corridor across Hindu territory to link the two separate areas of Pakistan the old communal feud will be ablaze again at once.

"Fortunately Gandhi, whose moods are never quite predictable, appears to have reconciled himself to partition..... For the rest, it is incumbent on this country to offer the new Indias a warmer friendship than ever before.

"To regard this week's decision as a blow to Britain's efforts for the unification of India is profoundly wrong. To unify the fragmented India after the breakup of the Moghul Empire was a great achievement and of immense benefit to India herself. But conditions to-day are totally different, and if partition does come no tears need or should be shed.....

"We stand poised between anxiety and hope. If the hope proves justified it will be through the faith and courage of four men from whom history will not withhold her tribute—Attlee and Mountbatten, Nehru and Jinnah."

CANADIAN PREMIER ON INDIAN SITUATION

OTTAWA, June 5 (APA).—The Canadian Prime Minister, Mr. Mackenzie King, last night expressed his belief to the Canadian House of Commons that the situation in India is "one of the most critical and delicate" existing in any part of the world.

Asked by Gordon Graydon (Progressive, Conservative) to comment on the British proposals, Mackenzie King explained that Canada was not consulted during the negotiations, "but we were asked if we wished to make any comment. I have no exception to take to that method of procedure because I do not think any other method

JUTE INDUSTRY IN DIVIDED BENGAL

M. P. Birla On Mutual Co-operation Without Political Agreement

BOMBAY, Friday.

The position of the jute industry in a divided Bengal was referred to by Mr. M. P. Birla, the first Indian president of the Indian Jute Mills Association, at a reception accorded to him by the East India Cotton Association this evening.

Mr. Birla said: "All the jute manufacturing mills are situated in West Bengal while about 70 per cent. of the raw jute is produced in East Bengal but that should not terrify us, because while the West Bengal mills and jute presses situated there are consumers of the entire quantity of jute produced in East Bengal, the latter will require many commodities such as rice, cloth, coal, steel etc. from not only West Bengal but also the other parts of 'Hindustan', so that the course of requirements of the two parts of Bengal are bound to adjust themselves without the necessity of any political agreement whatsoever."

Mr. Birla said that jute prices would have to be brought down "to a more reasonable level" because there was already evidence in foreign countries of substitutes taking place of jute goods.

Sir Purushottamdas Thakurdas, President of the East India Cotton Association, expressed pleasure at Mr. Birla being the first Indian President of the Indian Jute Mills Association.

KALBADEVI SHOOTING CASE

BOMBAY, Friday.

Further evidence was recorded today in the Kalbadevi Shooting Case before Justice Weston, Special Judge, at the Bombay High Court.

Shrikson Rupial Mundra, a dealer in perfumery, having his shop next to Tanman Cap shop at Kalbadevi deposed that at the time of firing near the Cotton Exchange Building he was in the shop. He heard the report of several shots fired in succession. Looking out he saw a man standing near a taxi and firing all round. He wore a Khaki pant, a coloured shirt and a felt hat of the type worn by the Gurkhas.

After firing several shots in the direction of the Cotton Exchange Building, said the witness, the man took his seat in the taxi which was standing a few paces away from the shop. He noticed another man sitting in the taxi near the steering wheel. He looked a little stouter than the man whom he had seen firing. The taxi then started and proceeded along Dhobitalao. He had also marked the number of the taxi which was B.M.T. 882.

After nearly two months he was called at the C.I.D. office to witness an identification parade, and it was there that he identified the second accused as the person whom he had seen driving the taxi. The case is proceeding.

Monnet Expected In U. S. To Discuss French Food Crisis

WASHINGTON, June 6. (U. P. A.): A reliable French source said today that Jean Monnet is expected here on June 15, to see Secretary Marshall and other prominents to emphasize the serious French bread and cereals situation due to the winter kill.

The source said that French Government officials were very worried and fear unless further cereals are sent in the very near future, it might be difficult to maintain even the present reduced bread ration.

Another grave matter, the source added, which Monnet will discuss, is the extra dollars needed for more cereals' imports as a result of the winter kill, which means less dollars for Monnet's four-year rehabilitation plan, and the effect that this will have on French economy.

A THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

"To-day the world is like a ship with no captain heading for the rocks. It is swept by passion and folly. We do not know whether it is passing through birth pangs or death throes. If we adopt the path of greed, hatred and self-interest, we will become something less than human. If we take the other path of fortitude, unselfish service and sacrifice, we will reach height of splendour in body, mind and spirit of which we can hardly dream. Irreligion is our malady and religion as an adventure of spirit as a radical transformation of human nature is the cure for it.

Such a religion will be revolutionary in character requiring us to embrace by an act of faith a vision of humanity based on justice, racial and national."

—Sir S. Radhakrishnan.

The Bombay Chronicle

DANGEROUS COURSE

The Princes' Chamber had been in the doldrums for some time past, ever since a number of its members took the patriotic decision to join the Constituent Assembly, a lead which has been increasingly followed by more Princes. But there are other Highnesses who have consistently opposed such a move. The conflict threatened a split at Bombay in March last, which was somehow avoided. Differences, however, remained and in fact sharpened in the meantime and actually came to a head a few days ago. The announcement of June 2 gave the Chamber the opportunity to liquidate itself in the natural way, which has been taken. For, under that announcement, Paramountcy is going to lapse in a matter of weeks leaving Their Highnesses free to go their individual ways according to personal preferences. It is a pity that a number of Princes are reportedly going to misuse the opportunity against the interests of their country and their own people and sooner than later very certainly against their own interests, too.

This suicidal course is being embarked on even against the advice of the friendly British. The Cabinet Mission Scheme and Lord Mountbatten, in his Press Conference, have made it amply clear where the British stand 'vis-a-vis' the Princes and what course they consider beneficial to Their Highnesses The British do not want the Balkanisation of India. Lord Mountbatten has said it in categorical language which no one can fail to understand. In accordance with this position they have told Their Highnesses as plainly as they could that they would not encourage independence but would render all assistance to Their Highnesses to enable them to join one Constituent Assembly. The British have tendered this advice because they do not wish to lose the friendship of India which they are only just beginning to win.

But the would-be secessionists and their advisers refuse to see the absurdity and impossibility of their position. Their sizes—with populations varying from a maximum of 12 million to less than one million!—geographical situation and their requirements for material existence, place them economically and otherwise at the mercy of democratically free India. But even more important than that they are autocratic rulers over people who are in every respect one with the people of India, organically and sociologically the same and sharing a common Indian consciousness, common Indian patriotism and common Indian aspirations. In the circumstances, can it be seriously imagined by Their Highnesses and their C. P. Ramaswami Iyers that they can get away for long with denial of every single vital fact of their respective situation? Fascinated by the prospect of autocratic "independence" and neither knowing nor caring—like so many others in history—for the inevitable fate of that mediaeval myth "the Divine Right of Kings" do they imagine that India, whether Hindustan or Pakisan, will tolerate their or their Dewans' autocracy; do they imagine that their "subjects" will fail to react to the freedom of the motherland and their fellow-countrymen or that they and their aspirations can be kept suppressed; and do they imagine that India will just remain indifferent to the fate of her children suffering under the autocratic rule of Princes and their Dewans and isolated from their brothers and sisters? Only suicidal folly can keep the would-be "Majesties" ignorant of realities and inevitabilities. Morally and democratically they have no title or right of the kind they are arrogating to themselves. History, geography, economics and sober commonsense warn them against such arrogation. For in it lies the certainty of disaster for them. If they want to exist, there is only one way to ensure their existence. Let them—and Sir C. P. Ramaswami Iyer—be warned that it is easy, fatally, easy to yield to ridiculously impossible temptations, but "apres mois le deluge" has usually come true in the past and will certainly come true in the present world. Times have vastly changed. Their Highnesses must in their own interests realise this and must not barter away their future for the false and poisonous glamour of a very brief present.

Frankly Speaking

Welcome Decision

Perhaps the richest thorium ore in the world is to be found in the monazite sands of the Travancore coast. And thorium is the key material in the production of atomic energy. Rumours had been current for some time that the Travancore Government was contemplating or negotiating the sale of this invaluable commodity to certain foreign interests. Therefore, it is reassuring to know that the Government of India has succeeded in enlisting the co-operation of the Travancore Government in devising a machinery charged with the task of seeing that the atomic energy resources of India are not frittered away or go to waste. That machinery is a Joint Committee of nine scientists, three nominated by the Travancore Government and the rest by an Atomic Research Board, which has been set up under the auspices of the Council of Scientific and Industrial Research. Announcing the formation of these two bodies, Mr. C. Rajagopalachari, Member for Industries and Supplies, has stated that it is the function of this Committee to advise the two Governments on all matters connected with research and development and the disposal and utilisation of raw material. Although using language redolent of Hindu mythology, Mr. Rajagopalachari points out that India does not wish to destroy. "What we seek to do is to domesticate for man's purposes this power born of the break-up of the atom." From this point of view, both the Government of India and that of Travancore deserve to be congratulated on arriving at an arrangement so obviously for the good of all concerned.

A Case For Revision

It is reported that the Bombay University has circularised its constituent colleges that no single class should consist of more than 150 students and that this rule has made it impossible for a large number of students to secure admission to the colleges. This state of affairs is bound to cause great distress and is, therefore, to be regretted. There is, of course, sound reason and justification for the attempt on the part of the University to regulate the number of students in each class. Teaching to big overcrowded classes, where the personal contact between the teacher and the taught, fundamental to good teaching, is absent, becomes a farce. Even a lecture to 150 students seems something like a public address; and one cannot but have pity for the underpaid lecturer, screeching away for all he is worth, to an unattentive crowd, miscalled a class. At the same time we do think the time has come when the University, as a body to which the function of supervising and conducting higher education is delegated by the State, should make itself responsible for finding accommodation for every student who is willing and qualified for admission to any course of study run under its auspices. This could be done by starting a larger number of sections in each class wherever possible, enlarging available accommodation and staff and running classes on a shift system. We appreciate, however, that these things may involve time. We trust the new and energetic Vice-Chancellor will seek and find a proper solution for these problems. Meanwhile, during the interim period we do think it is fairer to err on the side of admitting more students than of depriving a single aspirant of the vital opportunity of obtaining the benefits of university education.

Late Prof. Kosambi

In the death of Professor Dharmananda Kosambi India has lost one of its noblest sons and a savant of international repute. He was one of the greatest Pali scholars of his day and had filled the chair of Pali at the Harvard University in U.S.A. with distinction and after his return to India, had been closely associated with the Gujarat Vidyapeeth (Ahmedabad), Kashi Vidyapeeth (Benares) and Patna University as the director of Pali studies at these institutions. He was a devout Buddhist and had written a number of works in Marathi as well as English embodying the teachings and narrating the life-story of the Buddha. Prof. Kosambi, who came of a very poor family of Goa, was practically a self-educated man and his autobiographical narrative of his wanderings all over the country from the early age of fourteen, as a penniless youth, in quest of knowledge, is of absorbing interest and forms one of the romances of modern Marathi literature.

A Dedicated Life

He deliberately chose to lead a life of poverty and even in old age often cooked his meals and swept his rooms with his own hands declining the personal service of relatives, friends and hired servants alike. He was patriotic to the core and took an active part in the Non-Co-operation and Civil Disobedience movements and was jailed more than once in connection therewith. He was a firm believer in the doctrine of Non-violence and his last work, written in Marathi, dealt with the evolution of the spirit of Non-violence in Hinduism from the earliest Vedic days to the present time. Prof. Kosambi was a socialist and universalist, who recognised no distinctions of caste, creed or race. He loved the society of the poor and of Harijans more that of the rich and the educated and in his old age, for over a decade he lived in their midst in a Buddhist "Vihar" at Parel, which he had himself founded with a view to spreading the simple gospel of Buddha among the poor and the illiterate. He retired from the "Vihar" later to Sarnath, the "dear forest" near Benares, where Buddha has preached his first sermon. Thence he went to Sevagram in failing health where he passed his last days. It can be truly said of Professor Dharmanand Kosambi that he had lived a dedicated life—in the service of India and humanity.

Our Readers' Views

Hyderabad And Pakistan

Sir,—I was shocked to find that a publicist of Dr. Latiff's eminence should put forward the plea that Hyderabad, the Nizam's territory, is Pakistan by itself and that the Hindus who reside in that territory should, if they do desire, migrate from there to their respective spheres in Hindusthan. Such effusions would unnecessarily create bad blood in these days of mistrust and suspicion. By no flight of imagination could it be said that Nizam's territory is Pakistan. When Nizam-Ul-Mulk, the first Nizam, rebelled against his master the Emperor of Delhi, he could establish an independent principality in the Deccan only with the help of Maratha soldiers and warriors, Jagirdars and Sardars of the Deccan who still own large estates in the Nizam's territory equal in size and income to some of the Deccan States of Western India. Does not Dr. Latiff know that three of the twelve most ancient Jotirlingas—Shrines dedicated to God Siva which are held in great reverence by the Hindus throughout the length and breadth of India and are places of holy pilgrimages for them, and the two famous temples of Bhavani and Yogeshwari which are next in importance to the Pandharpur temple in Maharashtra and are visited by thousands of pilgrims every year, are situated in the Nizam's territory in the heart of the Marathwada province? Is Dr. Latiff great scholar as he is, ignorant of the fact that many of the famous Maratha saints flourished in Marathwada from 1300 A.D. onwards with Paithan as the seat of ancient Hindu learning which was called the Kashi or Benares of Southern India, and that Ramdas, the great preceptor of Shivaji was born at Jam and Keshavswami's Samathi is at Bhaganagar itself the present Hyderabad?

But that apart, is Dr. Latiff's claim sustainable even from the point of view of the population? The total population of the Nizam's territory is one crore and sixty three lacs. Out of which about forty lacs are Marathi-speaking Maharashtrians, about eighty lacs Telgu speaking Andhras, about seventeen lacs Kanarese speaking Kannads and only about twenty lacs are Urdu-speaking Muslims. The rest consists of Christians, Sikhs and other Hindus speaking Hindi or Urdu. There are only about ninety thousand Urdu-speaking Non-Muslims, the grand total of the Urdu-speaking people being only twenty one lacs and odd! These figures are taken from the Census of 1941. The one crore and forty lacs of Hindus out of the total population of one crore and sixty three lacs who are the original inhabitants of their respective sub-provinces, the Marathwada, the Telangan and the Karnatic which are contiguous to one another in the Nizam's territory are highly cultured people of military and literary fame. Can the Nizam's territory with only twelve per cent of Muslims and thirteen per cent of Urdu-speaking population be ever called Pakisthan? There is no separate province of Muslims. They are sparsely spread over the whole territory, majority of them being residents of Hyderabad, Secunderabad and few other towns such as Aurangabad and Gulburga.

In these circumstances it would be height of folly to claim the present territory of Nizam as Pakistan. His Exalted Highness the Nizam can if he so desires, still remain the titular head the constitutional ruler of his territory as an autonomous province of the Indian Union. Let him follow in the foot-steps of his illustrious father in whose regime there was no place for any sort of communalism. Whatever be the ultimate fate of the Punjab and Bengal, in no conceivable circumstances can Hyderabad or Nizam's territory be Pakistan.

Commerce Students Plight

Sir,—With reference to the Bombay University's Circular to the Principal of all affiliated Colleges, restricting the number of students to 150 in each class or division of a class, we wish to make the following observations.

As a result of this rule, 34 students from the Junior B. Com. class and about the same number from the Inter-Commerce Class of the Sydenham College of Commerce and Economics, promoted to the Senior B.Com. and Junior B.Com. classes respectively, will be forced to leave this College and seek admission elsewhere in the Province as there is no chance of obtaining admission to the only other Commerce College in the City. Besides, there is a moral obligation on the part of the College authorities to see that the students they have admitted to the College and who have been studying here for two or three years, graduate from here. In any case, the other College has tackled the syllabus in a different manner and our students will thus be greatly handicapped.

The University should realise the great amount of hardship that will be caused to the students concerned, if this Rule is allowed to stand. But if the University thinks that it has reasons for taking this drastic measure, let the Rule be modified so as to affect only the students seeking admission to the First Year of Commerce Class.

If the University persists in enforcing this Rule, it will amount to the shocking away of a child from its mother and giving it to a stranger for adoption.—Yours, etc.,

H. H. MITHA,
Secretary, Sydenham College Students' Union

Caustic Soda And Soap

Sir,—The report of certain remarks of mine made in an interview with representatives of the local press appear to have caused some misunderstanding as is evident from the letter from Mr. Y. E. Negrez, Honorary Secretary of the Soap Manufacturers' Association, Bombay, published in your issue of 3rd June 1947.

The point I was stressing in the course of the interview was that an injudicious distribution of caustic soda on the part of the Government had brought about the present unfortunate situation in regard to the manufacture of soap. It is quite obvious that from the national point of view, adequate production of soap as well as of glycerine which is a by-product of soap should be safeguarded and that caustic soda needs to be distributed in such a manner that it is used exclusively for the efficient production of soap by the allottees. My point, therefore, was that caustic soda, which is in such a short supply today, should be allotted only to "bona fide" and organised soap manufacturers to ensure that no leakage takes place into the black market as at present. I never meant to suggest that only the larger manufacturers should be given a monopoly of caustic soda allotments to the exclusion of smaller organised units.

A College In Kanara

Sir,—The Kanara College Society is proposing to take a big stride forward in the realisation of its object which is no less than building up a model educational and cultural centre in the congenial atmosphere of the district. The fine and extensive site recently gifted by the Government the Society has carried on considerable spade work and is going to have the foundation stone of the college buildings laid at 7-30 a.m. on Friday, the 13th of June next, at the hands of a distinguished Kanarite Dr. A. V. Baliga, of Bombay. Shriyut B. G. Kher, our popular Prime Minister, has been requested to preside over the function.

All educationists the Province over will no doubt hail the day as the day of a big idealist, constructive effort. This is an invitation to one and all to attend the function. Persons coming from distant places may please, give intimation in advance, so that due arrangements for their stay here at Kumta may be made.

'TRIBUNE' IN CONTEMPT CASE

Sequel To Sensational Headlines

LAHORE June 6 (APP).—The Lahore High Court has served a notice on Rana Jang Bahadur Singh, Editor, and Mr Bhimsain, Printer and Publisher of the 'Tribune', directing them to appear before the High Court on June 11 to show cause why they should not be committed or otherwise dealt with in accordance with law for contempt of court.

The notice has been caused to be issued on an application submitted by the Advocate-General who inter alia alleged that the 'Tribune' in its issues dated 30th May and 3rd June displayed sensational headlines of the proceedings of a case arising out of the present communal disturbances in Lahore which "calculated to interfere with the due course of justice and to produce an atmosphere of prejudice in favour of one party against the other."

It was further alleged by the Advocate-General that "the entire report has been prepared in a spirit of one-sided partisanship with reference to matters which were subjudice and that the paper has commented in a highly objectionable manner on the statement and demeanour of Mr Cheema Magistrate, 1st Class, Lahore who appeared as a witness in the case and thereby it has committed contempt of the High Court.

It is discovered today that nine letters as well as the first batch of seven sent to well-known people in Britain recently were posted in Turin.

The letter bombs were all in one mailbag and were slightly larger than the first consignment.

DEFENCE WITHOUT COMMENT

"My personal view is that we must vigorously protest against the creation of a Muslim State independent of the Central Indian State. We will not sign willingly the death warrant of the integrity of Hindustan. If Britain threats Pakistan on us per force, that is another matter. We will, in spite of it, continue our struggle to reannex these revolting Muslim Provinces.

U. Aung San, the Burmese leader, says: "A divided India augurs ill not only for the Indian people, but also for all Asia and world peace."

So what? But sorry, we digressed. What we meant to say is that everybody in the world—and led by Mountbatten himself—seems to be deploring the division of India and, therefore, condemning by implication the demand for Pakistan. They mustn't. They must be warned that the new State, which is coming into being, will rightly declare everybody—including Mountbatten—in the world as guilty of an Unfriendly Act within the meaning of International Law.

Except, we must, in fairness, mention here, the pro-Zionist (or Zionist?) M.P., Mr. R. G. Crossman, who wants Bevin to show the same guts and brilliance in foreign affairs as H.M.G. has done in re India. That is to say, Bevin must, among other things solve the Palestine problem by partitioning it between Arabs and Jews.

What does the League High Command say?

As to U. Aung San, if he is not very careful and at least diplomatically correct, the League leader will quite rightly be entitled to withdraw the assurance he gave to the Burmese leader at Karachi.

CITY J. P'S TO PAY RIOT TAX

Bombay Government Rejects Plea For Exemption

We understand that an application signed by 38 Justices of Peace and Honorary Presidency Magistrates—among whom are a Baronet, two Knights, half a dozen Rao Bahadurs and a Khan Saheb—asking for exemption from payment of Riot Tax under Section 45 C. I. (2) of the City of Bombay Police Act IV of 1902, has been turned down by the Government of Bombay.

The applicant the J.P's and Honorary Presidency Magistrates submitted that they owned landed property in the city and that as Honorary Presidency Magistrates their services were requisitioned by Government for quelling the riots, which they ungrudgingly rendered during day and night at great personal risk and discomfort. To the best of their knowledge and belief they further stated, the tenants occupying their properties were peaceful and law abiding citizens and had taken no part in the unlawful activities of the rioters. They therefore pleaded that the Riot Tax being of a punitive character should not be levied upon persons who had helped the Government in quelling the riots. They pointed out that the title holders were exempted from punitive tax by the Government of Bombay in the districts, and that if such exemption was granted to J.P's and Honorary Presidency Magistrates in Bombay it would be in consonance with appreciation of the work done by the applicants.

Among the applicants are Sir Jamshedji Jeejeebhoy, Sir J. B. Boman Behram the Hon Mr C H Bhabha, Mr S C Chambata, Mr Pranlal Devram Nanji Mr Gordhandas G Varanji Sir B N. Karanjia and others.

The Secretary to the Government of Bombay Home Department has replied: "Your request for exempting the Honorary Magistrates from Riot Tax cannot be granted".

Material Improvement Of Poorer Nations Must Have High Priority

G. L. Mehta Appeals For Sane International Economic Co-operation

GENEVA, June 5. (Reuter): Mr. G. L. Mehta, Manager of the Scindia Steam Navigation Company and leader of the Indian delegation to the International Chamber of Trade Congress at Montreal, told the Congress to-day that material improvement of poorer nations should be high on the priority list of a world organisation.

Mr. Mehta who was giving an address on the "needs of underdeveloped areas" said: "even a meagre increase in the woefully low standards of living of vast areas steeped in poverty will have far greater effect on extension of production and trade than a further increase in the already high standard of developed and richer countries.

International economic co-operation cannot now be promoted merely on the traditional lines of removal of tariff barriers irrespective of geographical distribution.

UNEMPLOYMENT.

"We have to remove underemployment in backward areas and raise the level of primary producers. As a result of the war the productivity of many countries has been considerably enhanced and there have been marked changes and shifts in balance of production and foreign assets. Acceleration of industrialisation in what were hitherto primary producing countries has made less-developed countries machine-minded and capital-hungry".

These demands he said, should be met in a co-operative spirit by those who have the good of the world at heart.

"Economically backward countries require different degrees and kinds of protection in view of their meagre development and urgent needs.

WORLD CO-OPERATION.

"They require various forms of assistance from those with longer experience, better skill and larger resources. They on their part are prepared to make their own contribution to achieve world-wide economic development.

Under-developed countries seek to achieve balanced economy. They seek to build up certain essential industries, not merely for national defence but also for sheer self-preservation in times of emergency". Mr. Mehta said that under-developed countries needed capital goods such as plant, equipment, machinery and technical knowledge.

The world to-day was hungry for goods but it was lack of production and want of purchasing power which were preventing the flow of commerce, not tariff barriers.

An effective way to set the wheels of industry moving swiftly and fast was to increase the purchasing power of the great mass of people in Asia and Africa who were suffering from chronic, if somewhat, disguised unemployment and under employment".

As regards foreign investments, Mr. Mehta said: "The difficulty in the past has been that foreign capital and enterprises which have gone into backward areas have created political ramifications involving questions of control and extra territorial rights. Often enough they were thought to develop, not industries and services most needed by the inhabitants of such countries, but those which suited the interests of the investing countries.

"The penetration of foreign capital has been rather in line with economic imperialism, rather than development in the interests of backward people. The needs of under-developed countries, therefore, demand not only political emancipation but also the complete readjustment of economic relationship between the countries."

THREE KILLED AS SEA-PLANE CRASHES INTO PRIVATE HOMES

PITTSBURGH (PENNSYLVANIA), June 5, (U. P. A.): Three persons were killed today when a low-flying seaplane crashed into four private houses, sending men, women and children streaming into the streets.

War Claims To Be Submitted To Allied Countries

WASHINGTON, June 5. (U.P.A.): The State Department to-day announced that the requests of U.S. citizens to recover property seized by the enemy powers should be submitted directly to the Government of the Allied country in which the property was located at the outbreak of the war.

The announcement said that requests for the recovery of looted property should not be submitted to the authorities in control of the former enemy countries in which they believe their property may be located. It explained that it is the responsibility of the Government of the country in which the property was located at the outbreak of the war to report the removal to the proper authorities in the countries to which the property may have been taken. It added that it is the responsibility of those authorities to conduct the necessary searches.

WORLD CITY IN HEART OF NEW YORK

11 Top Architects Creating Blueprint And Clay Model

NEW YORK, (A.P.A.): An 11-man commission, composed of some of the world's finest architects, is creating on blueprint and in clay the design for a world city in the heart of the metropolis of New York City.

Child of the United Nations, this planning board is arguing discussing and working much in the manner of its young parent—and is getting a lot of work done.

Tall, rangy Wallace K. Harrison, a New Englander who has done as much as any single man to change New York city's skyline, is director of the International Board. It is charged withdrawing plans for the concrete, steel and glass United Nations Headquarters so that it will be at once a symbol of one world and an efficient place of business.

He makes the gigantic task sound absolutely simple:

"When you plan any building, skyscrapper or cottage, you simply find out how much space a single man needs and then you multiply that by the number of people you want to accommodate."

At the outset, Harrison was not worried particularly about the job of planning the United Nations Headquarters. But he was concerned about the international make-up of his planning board.

"Each country was permitted to make nominations and the nominees were confirmed by the United Nations", he explained. "It was quite natural to think the board would be a bunch of prima donnas, who could not accept any compromise on their ideas."

"But things could not have worked smoother. All of us realise that this board is a pretty good test for the whole United Nations concept. If a group of architects and engineers cannot get together and plan a series of buildings, how can we expect the nations to get together on a plan for peace?"

The boss architect of the United Nations sounds as though his job were simply that of a military group leader, and actually, this man who had an important part in the planning of New York's 14-skyscrapper Rockefeller Center, holds a veto power similar to that of a big power in the United Nations Security Council. He has not had occasion to use it, and he does not intend to.

"We put the board in a big room with drafting boards, assistants and plenty of space to argue, sketch and work Harrison said. "They work independently and get together for long conferences. No one has tried to push through a selfish idea and no one has got temperamental" he added.

Fifty-one-year-old Harrison, whose work and world travels have made him a true diplomat and cosmopolitan, is honestly enthusiastic about the team-play.

The abilities and specialities of the board are as far apart as the geographical space that separates their countries, but "they have a common meeting ground in their knowledge of modern architecture"

At one end of this group is Nikolai D. Bassov of Soviet Russia; a noted heavy-industry engineer. Bassov's prime interest is the utility end of construction: heating and cooling systems, boilers, elevators and escalators and the handling of traffic.

Charles Le Corbusier, one of France's best known architects, is at the other end. He is first an artist, concerned with beauty of line and the play of light and shadow. Famed as a designer of urban and country homes and estates, Le Corbusier agrees with Bassov on one important point: a building must be useful and sufficiently planned to have interior and exterior beauty.

Between the two are men from a variety of nations, each with a special type of contribution to make. There is Britain's Howard Robertson, designer of some of the United Kingdom's most important buildings and the British Pavillion at the New York World's Fair. Robertson thinks in terms of quiet, calm cloisters and creating a place where work can be done in peace and an unhurried atmosphere.

Sweden's Sven Markelius, who planner of Stockholm, is particularly concerned with the surroundings of the United Nations site and with creating a special type of office building adapted for the organisation's purposes.

Ernest Comnier of Canada designed the Supreme Court buildings in Toronto and is a special in Government buildings.

G. A. Soilleux of Australia has designed numerous auditoriums and is working hard on the General Assembly building plans. China's Cheng Liang is an expert in his knowledge of the placement of buildings and in the use of materials. Brazil's Oscar Niemeyer is the creator of some of the finest structures in Rio De Janeiro.

Harrison himself is a veteran in his profession. He studied in the Beaux Arts in Paris and the American Academy in Rome. A recognized specialist in big-city architecture, he was a professor of architecture at both Yale and Columbia Universities. His Rockefeller Center experience prepared him well for his present job, which has been described as "one of the choicest architectural assignments ever made." United Nations Secretary-General Trygve Lie said Harrison was "the best possible choice" and his selection was unanimously confirmed by the organisation's site committee.

"We are working at high speed," Harrison said. "We hope to have plans ready by July 1, so that the member nations can study them. Then we hope the General Assembly will have the whole thing on its agenda in September."

Meanwhile, there are some financial problems about building the new city. While they are not Harrison's own problems, he is concerned about them.

Chances are the final estimates will run upwards of dol. 100,000,000, to be apportioned among the member nations.

"But," said Harrison "that is Trygve Lie's problem, not ours. All we try to do is be economical, eliminate luxury and put in necessities."

Harwood League Football

SOMERSET'S EASY WIN

BOMBAY, Friday.

SOMERSET	4
BOMBAY GYMKHANA	0

In their five engagements in the Senior Harwood League Football this season, the Bombay Gymkhana have still not earned even a single point. In their fifth match they were easily beaten by Somerset by 0-4.

The losers had but one real chance of scoring and that unfortunately failed to fructify merely because the Somerset custodian's legs happened to be in front of the powerful drive.

The winners spent most of their time near their opponents' territory but lack of vigorous shooting coupled with the dour Gymkhana defence forced them to be content merely with a 1-0 lead at half-time.

Clark, who was moved from centre-forward to left-back figured well in that position and broke up many dangerous looking moves.

The goals were scored by Foley, O'Donnell, Pearce (Penalty) and Connell respectively.

THE TEAMS:

SOMERSET LIGHT INFANTRY:—Dale; Jones and Dando; Hadley, Pearce and Silcox; Connell, Gower, Adams, O'Donnell and Foley.

BOMBAY GYMKHANA:—Nelson; Castle and Clark; Collins, Spink and Hickey; Hertzog, Rutz, Dickinson, Richardson and Thomas.

SATURDAY at 5-45 p.m. Trades vs. Dockyards.

"EDWARDS" RETAINS TITLE

BOMBAY BUILDS LARGEST FLOATING DOCK

Too large to pass through the Suez Canal the world's largest floating dock built in Bombay and capable of accommodating 50,000-ton ships, is here seen being towed in two parts by British Admiralty tugs through the Suez 'en route' to Malta. The first half of the dock being warped through the El Firdan Swing Bridge while a R.A.F. spotter aircraft flies over the top. The second half of the dock can be seen approaching on the Canal in the distance.

Indonesian Counter Proposals

Interim Federal Govt. To Be Formed By Republican Cabinet

BATAVIA, June 6. (Reuter): The formation of an Interim Federal Government for Indonesia until 1949 is expected to be accepted in principle by Dr. Sutan Sjahrir's Republican National Cabinet, according to reliable sources here.

In its counter proposals, it is expected to submit to the Dutch a five-point memorandum, with a fourteen-day time limit for implementation of the Linggadjati agreement. Republican sources consider likely, however, that the Cabinet will express opposition to the present Netherlands East Indies Government taking over Federal Government functions.

Assumption of federal powers of the Cabinet is believed not to be in accordance with Linggadjati, unless an Interim Federal Government was organised in some acceptable national form with adequate republican representation.

The final report of the special Cabinet Sub-Committee appointed to study the Dutch proposals which suggested an Interim Government will probably be considered to-day by the Cabinet at the nearby mountain resort of Kaliwrang where already it has met for three days. Afterwards the Cabinet representatives will meet the Republican Working Committee executive body of the Indonesian National Parliament and later the leaders of the Republican parties which have rejected the Dutch note in its present form.

The final draft of the Indonesian reply will be taken to Batavia by Dr. Sjahrir about the end of the week. One important point of agreement is likely to include general acceptance of the proposals for military co-operation and withdrawal of the present forces from the perimeters to garrisons.

On political economic and financial details, Republican sources here say counterproposals are necessary, although there are many points of general agreement.

MERGING OF REPUBLICAN ARMY

BATAVIA, June 6. (Reuter): The merging of the Republican army with the regular forces in Java to create a Republican National Army was announced here in a presidential decree just issued. General Sudurman remains Commander-in-Chief.

The forces now combined in the National Army are the Tentara Republic of Indonesia, known as Tri Lascar Rakjat, and the Danteng Division of East Java led by the long-haired, so-called Extremist leader Sutomo.

The decree consolidates all Republican forces under a single leadership for the first time since the revolution began.

India And Indonesia Agree To Establish Diplomatic Relations

BATAVIA, June 5. (U.P.A.): In connection with many unreliable reports on the diplomatic status of India towards Indonesia, a Dutch announcement this evening said that the Dutch Government had the best of relations with India and it had been agreed to have an exchange of ambassadors.

A number of consulates will be opened in India.

Meanwhile, the Indian Government has approached the Dutch Government for the appointment of an India Consul-General at Batavia.

D. F. Karaka:

Off My Chest

We listen to all points of view, so I reproduce here below extracts from a letter received from A. M. Mahajan on my remarks on the Mountbatten plan.

Mr. Mahajan says:—

"You have referred to Mahatma Gandhi's talks with Mr. Jinnah 5 years ago saying that the Hindu-Muslim problem would have been solved long ago, if Mr. Jinnah's demands had been met then, which would have meant less than what has been conceded by the Award. How can there be any compromise with Mr. Jinnah when there are definite fundamental ideological differences between the two organisations? The Congress has all along been advocating "Akhand Hindustan" whereas the League leader stood for partitioning of India with a separate Constituent Assembly for the partitioned areas. Will you please tell me whether Mr. Jinnah would have been satisfied with the partitioning of the Punjab and Bengal 5 years' back? Only a week ago, he had said that he would fight tooth and nail for every inch of land if the two provinces were divided into Muslim and non-Muslim areas.

If he is prepared to accept the Viceroy's plan now, though reluctantly it is because there is no other alternative left to him. A little insight in the League leader's psychology will show that he has achieved his goal with the help of the British who has reared him to the present position for consolidating their imperial hold in this land. They are now sincerely quitting, Mr. Jinnah has no support any more to rest upon.

Mr. Nehru's acceptance of the partitioning of India is quite in conformity with the various resolutions passed by the Working Committee of the Congress reiterating their faith in the self-determination and no coercion of unwilling parts. Viewed from that angle, the Viceroy's award is no surprise to the Congress.

Mr. Nehru had all along held the ideal of the whole of India and how could he have compromised on this issue 5 years back? Is it not worthwhile to cling to certain ideals and not to have a compromise on the fundamentals? If Nehru agrees now, it is because of stark realities of the situation. Mr. Nehru could not have dreamt that time what the future lay in store for Indian nationalism.

Vallabhbhai Patel's remarks have either been misrepresented or misunderstood by you. His reference to the sword being met by sword did not exhibit any communal tinge but a national leader occupying the post of the Home Member had to give some bitter truths to the warring element in Indian nationalism.

If there is a puritanism in the Congress leadership, it is for us to strengthen the hands of the young leaders such as Jai Prakash Narain and other Socialist leaders. All our present day evils will be solved by bending our energies towards the ideal of "Kisan Mazdoor Raj." There is no example in contemporary history of political parties that power has been given willingly to the younger section. It has to be thrashed out from their hands."

I reproduce the above letter to reveal to you a state of mind.

Why the wise use Wisdom

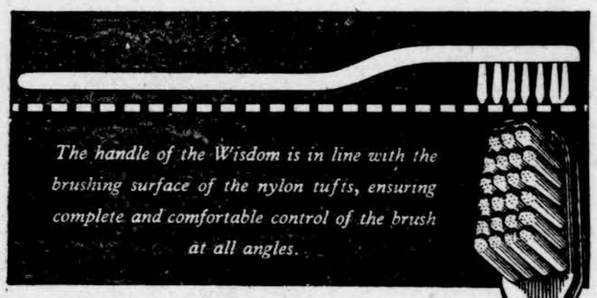
Cranked handle gives comfortable control



The handle of the Wisdom is in line with the brushing surface of the nylon tufts, ensuring complete and comfortable control of the brush at all angles.

AND that's not all! The Wisdom short head fits the inner curve of the teeth and cleans the back of every tooth as thoroughly as the front. Widely-spaced tapered tufts penetrate between the teeth and "comb out" food particles which breed infection and cause decay.

The Wisdom toothbrush lasts longer too. Its nylon tufts stay springy three times as long as animal bristles and they won't come out. Don't merely ask for a "toothbrush": insist on a Wisdom.

"SINDOOR"
FILMISTAN'S LATEST

Filmistan will screen today at Roxy a rare treat for filmgoers—a picture that tackles a very significant social problem which is of considerable importance to the Indian society. This picture is "Sindoor." As the name suggests, it deals with that little vermillion mark which a Hindu woman puts on her forehead—a mark which is dearer to her than even her life.

"Sindoor" has a powerful cast in Kishore Sahu, who returns to the screen after a lapse of nearly two years, Shamim plays opposite him and Paro, still remembered by filmgoers for her smart work in "Shikari," is assigned a featured role.

Kishore Sahu has written the story of "Sindoor" and has also produced and directed it. The songs are in keeping with the serene tone of the story. Musical score is by Khemchand Prakash.

"SHAHJEHAN"
SUCCESS OF KARDAR PRODUCTION

Today Producer-Director A. R. Kardar's "Shahjehan" enters into its fourth week of successful run simultaneously at Novelty and Imperial Cinemas. He has reason to be proud of the enthusiastic popular welcome accorded to this film whose theme is the birth of that world's wonder, "Tajmahal". Sang the great poet Rabindra Nath Tagore,

'Time is no respector of Mighty Empires or men of Mighty Power,
All must eternally fall to its law of oblivion!
Let only this one heart's deeply felt sorrow
Like a glistening drop of tear
Remain forever
Shining on the cheek of Time itself',
....this Tajmahal.'

Kardar has given substance to this concept of the great poet in his latest production.

"SAMRAT ASHOK"
SPECTACULAR FILM BOOKED FOR EARLY RELEASE

The long-awaited Bombay Cinetone's historic offering 'Samrat Ashok' is now ready and scheduled for an early release in one of Bombay's front-rank theatres. Two years in the making, at Prabhat Studios, the young and energetic producer-director K. B. Lall has lavished all his resources to make 'Samrat Ashok' as spectacular and impressive as the story and period it seeks to portray. No wonder, the picture is estimated to have cost more than twelve lakhs of rupees.

Husn Bano in "Samrat Ashok"

Starring such star artistes as Veena, Shamim, Sapru, Husna Banu, Shakir and Ulhas, Samrat Ashok', produced and directed by K. B. Lall, is stated to be not just a colourful portrayal of the glory that was Ind, but a lively story of yesterday with a significance for today.

"PARWANA"
SAIGAL-SURAIYA PICTURE AT SWASTIK

In its fourth week now at Swastik, Jeet Production's "Parwana" would appear to have settled down for a long run in the city. The popularity of the film is mainly to be attributed to its star-pair Saigal and Suraiya. In it Saigal has given a most memorable performance of his career. It is a treat to watch this 'king of melody' act in this picture. And as to Suraiya, never before had she displayed her personal charm, histrionic talent and liveliness as in this picture.

Additional attractions of the film are the songs of Madhok, the tunes of Khurshed Anwar.

"MITTI"
FILM WITH PATRIOTIC THEME

With a patriotic theme, Central Studios, "Mitti" has proved popular, being now in its third week at the local Krishna Talkies.

"Mitti" offers a clean, purposeful and wholesome entertainment, with a stirring story about the struggles of freedom-loving youth of the country. Khurshid's songs of Hindu-Muslim unity and other patriotic themes are calculated to thrill the audiences. Produced by Jayant Desai and directed by Ravindra Jayakar from an original story by Ramesh Saigal (author of 'Deewar'), "Mitti" is undoubtedly an outstanding picture.

PATHAN
Prithvi Theatres' Stirring Drama

As more than one critic has acclaimed, the Hindustani stage has not witnessed a finer specimen of stage craft than Prithvi Theatres' "Pathan" now attracting full houses every Saturday and Sunday morning at Royal Opera House.

Indeed, one is struck while watching "Pathan' by the perfect co-ordination of lighting- make-up, costumes, set, musical effects, entry and exit of players and above all by the harmonic movement of characters in each act which gives a rhythm to the whole play and makes it a true and colourful pageant of the life of Pathans in the real sense of the word.

The play sums up the message of Hindu-Muslim unity more effectively than any sermon on unity.

It is as much as triumph for Producer-Director-Star Prithviraj as for author Bismil Peshawari, stars Uzru Mumtaz, Zohra Segal, Raj Kapoor, Kanwal Kapoor, Sajjan, Brijmohan Vyas, music director Ram Gangoli, art director Raj Kapoor, dance director Satyanarain and other artists and technicians of Prithvi Theatres.

ENGINEERS OF 'LETTER BOMBS'
Stern Gang On Responsibility Of Its European Branch

JERUSALEM, June 6 (A.P.A.): The Stern gang, the most violent terrorist group in Palestine, declared last night that the "murder by mail" attempts against seven prominent Britons were engineered by its European branch.

The Stern gang declared that the letters said to have contained explosives and mailed in Italy, were sent by its band members there.

The British High Commissioner for Palestine, Sir Alan Cunningham, declared last night that "if the military forces were permitted to use the full power of their weapons against the whole of the Jewish community, terrorist activities would be brought to an end in a matter of hours."

The Irgun Zvai Leumi printing plant was confiscated in Tel Aviv along with a quantity of previously printed communique and a printing frame for a new batch, the police reported.

Two men were arrested. One of them was identified as Moshe Ben Segnior who was being sought by the police.

WILL CONTINUE ATTACKS

JERUSALEM, June 5 (Reuter): The Jewish terrorist organisation Irgun Zvai Leumi said tonight that it would continue attacks on "vital enemy objectives", because Jewish immigrants had been deported to Cyprus in violation of the United Nations plea for peace in Palestine while the problem was being investigated.

Claiming to have been responsible for attacks this morning on Athlit railway station and the Iraq Petroleum Company oil pipeline, Irgun said in a statement to a Hebrew newspaper in the all-Jewish city of Tel Aviv: "We will continue attacks on vital enemy objectives because the occupation forces have deported Jewish immigrants from the ship 'Yehuda Halevy."

This was the ship which reached Haifa on May 31.

FOR A SMOOTHER SKIN because NIVEA goes a little *deeper

There are many beauty preparations—but NIVEA Creme is different. It is a beauty Creme containing "Eucerite," a substance most nearly resembling the natural skin oils that are dried up by the sun, dust and frequent washing. Gently rub in fragrant NIVEA — it penetrates beneath the skin surface, cleansing clogged pores, removing blemishes, keeping the skin soft and supple in the most trying climate. For the face NIVEA can be used as a powder base. For the hands, NIVEA prevents roughness and cracked cuticles. Always, give skin this NIVEA-care.

* NIVEA Creme contains 'Eucerite'—an ingredient possessing the closest resemblance to the skin's natural oils. It gently penetrates the skin surface, nourishes tissues, prevents dry, 'tired' skin.

Further Rise In Tata Steel Shares

BULLION PRICES FIRM UP ON PROFESSIONAL BUYING

Cotton Rules Quiet But Produce Market Looks Up

BOMBAY, June 6.

To-day's small session of the Stock Exchange failed to have any large turnover and except scattered buying in Steel shares, there was no important move and most of the Textile and other active shares remained steady with a restricted turnover. This week there was rapid price movement in Steel shares but on balance show moderate gains on clarification of political outlook. Many vital questions such as national Debt and currency will have to be solved but one thing seems certain that there will not be any disturbances and with the return of confidence will have normal flow of internal trade which in turn will release large sums of money blocked in Stocks.

Tata Steel Dfd shares opened at Rs. 1985 and improved at Rs. 2020 while Ordinary shares opened at Rs. 388 and advanced at Rs. 394. Bombay Dyeing shares opened at Rs. 1057 and steadied at Rs. 1060 while Kohinoors were done at Rs. 637, Swadeshi were placed at Rs. 622, Central Banks were quoted at Rs. 98 and Scindia shares were placed at Rs. 21/8.

FUTURES 12 TO 25 POINTS HIGHER

NEW YORK, June 5. (U.P.A.): Slow trading featured today's session of the New York Cotton Exchange with a closing burst of buying for October on behalf of New Orleans professionals and Akron rubber interests. Prices finally jumped as much as 32 points from the lows to close 12 to 25 higher. Concentrated demand for October narrowed the discount under July to 475 points compared with a forenoon difference of 490 points. Prior to the final upsweep, the market was a featureless affair. Prices swayed within narrow limits, being responsive to small orders either way. The relative firmness of July was again the foremost feature until the demand for October developed. The open interest in July declined 18,800 bales overnight to 568,000 bales at the opening of the session today. Technicians were confident of buying in July mostly on short covering and the technical position was impaired to that extent although it was also pointed out that the remaining interest to be evened up was still large and was likely to prove a supporting influence on recessions. An opposite viewpoint was that Southern producers and other holders of actual cotton wouldn be willing sellers in the event of July penetrating the 35-cent line and that considerable offerings were overhanging the market at that level.

TRADERS AWAIT

Apart from the day to day developments in July, new interest developing was slowing as traders were not inclined to take a definite stand until outside uncertainties are clarified. Their foremost interest now centers on the probable action of President Truman on the Tax Reduction Bill. If the Executive vetoes the bill, many traders look for a setback in cotton and other markets. The industrial picture is also being clouded by the threat of a coal strike and traders are still without any opinion on the new crop prospects. The contradictions in the textile situation are also confusing. While the activity in print cloth both for domestic consumption and exports has spurted sharply, there is a lull in activity in other fabrics and trade reports indicate an increased curtailment of some yarn mills and a greater rate of unemployment in textile mills

REDUCTION PROGRAMME

Truman's statement on his price reduction programme has yielded "substantial results" and has attracted considerable attention, but the statement has had no influence in the market.

Concerning the expected early announcement of Army plans to buy raw cotton for shipment to Japan, trade circles hint that any new inquiry will be for low grades, not used domestically, and the amounts bought are likely to be the minimum required by Japanese mills for June and July. William D. Anderson, Chairman of the Bibb Manufacturing Company, who are one of the foremost textile manufacturers, has now joined the opposition for the revival of the Japanese textile industry. He said that "Japanese textile exports should be restricted to the Asiatic mainland and adjacent countries which have become famished for cotton goods".

Traders expressed the opinion that the market is still a trading affair subject to transit influences and that quick turn sales in strong spots appear to offer the best opportunity.

GOLD AND SILVER

BOMBAY, June 6.

Professional operators again helped the market with buying orders and this support induced short covering.

Ready silver was quoted at Rs. 167/12 while ready gold after opening at Rs. 111/8 improved at Rs. 111/12, sovereigns were quoted at Rs. 72/4 and the tone of the market was steady.

Later on there was restricted business. Ready silver was placed at Rs. 167/12 while gold was steady at Rs. 112.

It is reported that both directors of the Bullion Exchange and members of the Merchants Committee are having meeting to the resumption of forward trading and so far no decision is taken. The Government has asked them to adopt a democratic constitution several months before but nothing is done as some of them fear that they will not have free hand to manipulate the market. However now it is upto the Government to frame the constitution after getting replies to the questions.

The market ruled very steady and final quotations were as under:—

Ready Silver	Rs 168 10 0
Ready Gold	Rs. 112 4 0
Sovereigns	Rs. 72 6 0

BOMBAY COTTON

BOMBAY, June 6.

The local cotton market opened unchanged and ruled quiet under moderate liquidation. As pointed out the market is making idle moves and all upturns attract moderate selling on the belief that by delivery time the market will sink below the floor level.

The market opened as expected at Rs. 436/8 for September delivery and declined at Rs. 435/8 on moderate selling. At this level there was mixed trading with both buying and selling balanced.

There was scattered buying and September option was quoted at Rs. 435/12.

The market closed at 3-30 p.m. as under

I. C. C. July	Rs.	430	0 0
I. C. C. Sept.	Rs.	435	10 0

U.S. GOLD STOCKS RISE BY EIGHTY MILLION DOLLARS

WASHINGTON, June 5, (U.P.A.): The Federal Reserve System today reported that heavy return flow of gold from Argentine and other countries has boosted U.S. gold stocks by dol. 80,000,000 during the week ended June 4th to 20,990,000 dollars which is a new high since August 16, 1944.

NEW YORK SILVER UNCHANGED AT 70-3/4 CENTS

NEW YORK, June 5, (U.P.A.): The price of silver remained unchanged at 70-3/4 cents per ounce on the New York market today. The volume of business done was small, probably under 200,000 ounces, all of which was for domestic use.
